Our Commitment To Privacy

Your privacy is important to us. To better protect your privacy we provide this notice explaining our online information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used. To make this notice easy to find, we make it available on our homepage and at every point where personally identifiable information may be requested. This policy applies to all information received by Bridging For Tomorrow “BFT”, both online and offline, on any Platform (“Platform” includes the BFT website and mobile applications), as well as any electronic, written, or oral communications.

The Information We Collect

This notice applies to all information collected or submitted on the BFT website. On some pages, you can order products, contact us or make donations. The types of personal information collected on these pages include: Name, Address, Email address, Phone number, Credit/Debit card information, etc. On some pages, you can submit information about other people. For example, if you order a gift online and send it directly to the recipient, you will be asked to submit the recipient’s address. In this circumstance, the types of personal information collected include: Name, Address, Phone number, etc.

The Way We Use Information

We use the information you provide about yourself when making a donation only to process that donation. We do not share, sell, rent or lease this information with outside parties.

We use the information you provide about someone else when making a donation only to notify that person that a gift has been made in their honor. We do not share, sell, rent or lease this information with outside parties.

We use return email addresses to answer the email we receive. Such addresses are not used for any other purpose and are not shared with outside parties.

We use non-identifying and aggregate information to better design our website and to share with advertisers. For example, we may tell an advertiser that X number of individuals visited a certain area on our website, or that Y number of men and Z number of women filled out our registration form, but we would not disclose anything that could be used to identify those individuals.

Finally, we never use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the ones described above without also providing you an opportunity to opt-out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

Our Commitment To Data Security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

Our Commitment To Children's Privacy

Protecting the privacy of the very young is especially important. For that reason, we never collect or maintain information at our website from those we actually know are under 13, and no part of our website is structured to attract anyone under 13.

How You Can Access Or Correct Your Information:

You can access all your personally identifiable information that we collect online and maintain by contacting Katie Scarborough at 832-666-3079. We use this procedure to better safeguard your information.

You can correct factual errors in your personally identifiable information by sending us a request that credibly shows the error to: Bridging For Tomorrow, 5351 W. Richey Rd., Houston, TX 77066.

To protect your privacy and security, we will also take reasonable steps to verify your identity before granting access or making corrections.
